Rules of the Competition:

Recommendations on the organization of F3P, F3A competitions in Lithuania will be applied during the competition (unfortunately this document is only in Lithuanian).

The basic rules are:

1. FAI schedule - three (3) P17 rounds and two (2) F17 rounds will be flown during the competition. One preliminary round and one final round with the lowest scores will be eliminated. Final result will be calculated from the two best preliminary rounds and one best final round.
2. C schedule - three (3) C rounds will be flown. One round with the lowest scores will be eliminated. Final result will be calculated from the rest two rounds.
3. F6A. General rule - a participant should prepare 4 min routine. Music for the flight should be recorded in the MP3 format (memory stick is the best option) and provided to the organisers before the F6A competition. Two (2) rounds of the F6A will be flown during the competition. Final results will be calculated from the scores of both rounds.

Note! If you have any further questions regarding the rules of the competition - please contact organisers (contacts below).

Note! Participants are individually responsible for the safety of their flight during the competition.
